Dear Ulla,

Thank you so very much for your little letter. I just picked it up. The mail arrived right in the middle of the sea. We are quite cheerful and are keeping our fingers crossed very tightly. Your letter made me very happy, it had everything in it. You are also quite something, always cheerful on the horse, especially practical to be peeling an apple, and on the side, "Please, four fruit baskets, do not peel." And a lot less time. The two of them are always a source of joy out goes the door closed, the bathroom and everything is a huge affair. When it's cold, the bathroom is cold, heated. The night is downright grand, being able to go to the loo at night and in the mornings I always have a warm shower and a bath in the evening. That will also be nice in the summer, to take a cold shower. My washing machine is quite
